YORK'S VALENCIA BALLROOM REOPENING NOVEMBER 1
Kinsley Properties and White Rose Bar and Grill combine efforts to reopen the historic venue.

York, PA – The Valencia Ballroom in York will reopen as a catering and event venue on November 1, 2016, under the management of White Rose Bar and Grill.

“We’ve been talking with Kinsley about how we could make the Valencia available again to York’s residents, businesses and community organizations,” said Jeremiah Anderson, who co-owns White Rose Bar and Grill with Tim Sibol. “We’re thrilled to work with Kinsley to bring the facility back for everyone to enjoy.”

Unoccupied since July of 2015, Kinsley – the property owner – is preparing the facility to open in advance of the busy holiday season, and White Rose Bar and Grill is taking reservations. “We’ve booked a few events already,” said Anderson. “It’s been such a prominent part of downtown York for so long - people are excited to return to the Valencia and make new memories here.”

The historic Valencia Ballroom dates back to the 1900s and has hosted the likes of Glenn Miller and Frank Sinatra. The facility provides options that support groups ranging in size from 20 to 400 people. The catering plan includes a menu that will be reflective of the fare found at White Rose Bar and Grill and its sister establishment, Rockfish Public House.
